Gala Parties Note Birthdays of Fred MacKenzie, Paul Carrico

By VERA C. WRIGHT FR 2-2288

A dinner party was given for Freddie MacKenzie, of 4332 W. 179th St., to celebrate his tenth birthday. Those enjoying the 4:30-8:30 soiree for the younger set were: Ronnie Scott, Doug Stinger, Morrie Dohner, Bill Whitlow, and Kenny MacKenzie who also helped the celebrant open the many gifts.

Paul Carrico, of 18428 Regina Ave., was really surprised with a birthday party on Nov. 13. Several of his friends were hiding in the patio and his mother asked him to procure an item from there. When he did so he was greeted by various yells of "Happy Birthday," and this young man's mouth fell wide open! Playing games, records, dancing and enjoying a patio feast were Sandra Rathbun, Ophelia McClain, Rozelle McCaskey, Judy Maury, Bonnie Williams, Carl Davis, Bobby White and Richard Bullock.

Never have seen two such hard working youngsters as the two Rosa youngsters of 18330 Roslin Ave., Marie and Tony Jr., who are taking accordion lessons twice a week.

Kahle Meyers, of 4330 W. 180th St., celebrated his birthday on Nov. 15 with his friends of long-standing, Mr. and Mrs. Delno Hart. Gifts galore and a huge cake made quite a hit.

You've never tasted a delicacy unless you've eaten venison prepared Hungarian style by Geza Orley, of 1319 Cranbrook Ave. Father Wright and I, along with Mr. and Mrs. John Bentley, enjoyed this interesting meal, prepared by Mr. Orley last Saturday. Mrs. Orley's contribution to the meal, the pumpkin and mince meat pies, melted in our mouths.

Best wishes to Mrs. Howard Mangan, 4163 W. 182nd St., who recently underwent surgery. Although she is still quite weak, she is rapidly improving.

Theresa Schuster, 3954 W. 182nd St., is busily formulating plans for the North Torrance Canasta Lassies' Christmas party which will be held at her home, on Dec. 6.

Draft Board Gets No Word On Decision

Local draft boards have received no official comment on a recent court decision which denounced draft regulations holding that pregnancy was a condition over which registrants had control, according to Mrs. Lillian Lamb, registrar for the Torrance area.

The E. Oststroms entertained at a pre-Folleman's Ball tea hour at their 3754 W. 178th St. home. Guests were Mrs. Glen Runsted, Mrs. Sarah Hooker, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Philo Mellor, Mr. and Mrs. William Wright.

The Glenn Blakes had a big time Nov. 13 at the Constituents Post 583 Legion Dance, in celebrating their 17th wedding anniversary. All congratulated Glenn on his handling of the dance, since he, as third vice-commander, was in charge.

Best wishes are extended to Mrs. A. MacKenzie's mother, Mrs. J. R. Myers, who is in St. Vincent's Hospital and is improving steadily.

Armistice Day proved quite interesting for the R. B. McClain family, whose outing took them into the vicinity of Lancaster and the Mojave Desert. Although they thought they might come home with jack rabbits, the only thing available to shoot at were targets.

The Jack E. White homestead, 4308 W. 178th Pl., was the meeting place of the North Torrance Civic Improvement Assn., according to John Crain, publicity chairman for the group. Items under discussion were the success of their anniversary dance and formulation of plans for interesting future programs. The meeting is held the first Wednesday of each month. You need not be a home owner to belong.

Anyone wishing to donate homemade candy, cookies, Christmas cards, or stamps to be taken to the hospital, please contact me. This is important, for we want those men and women who have no one to care for them to belong.

At the time the Spanish-American War broke out, the United States army consisted of only 2,000 officers and 25,000 men.
